Eulogy for Leonard Stone

by

Grant Hansen

February 12, 1981

Each of us is an individual and unique member of God's family here on earth. Leonard Leroy Stone is especially rare and unique in that he was born and raised right here in San Diego and has lived here essentially all of his life. Mildred just told me that he was even able to serve his World War II military obligation here in San Diego. The eldest of five children, he was raised with brothers Edgar and Fred and sisters Lucile and Evelyn, all of whom still live here in Southern California.

Leonard's father was a construction contractor, but Leonard did not choose to follow in his father's footsteps. Instead, he chose the sales and service business. Although most of us would characterize him as a quiet and somewhat shy person, he liked to be with, and work with, people.

Perhaps because Leonard was the oldest son, his younger brothers characterize him as a "by himself" person, but one who was a very giving person--always thinking of others. Being born October 14, 1917, Leonard went into his teens about the time the country went into the great depression. A circus came to El Cajon early in the depression. Leonard wanted to go but he only had 50¢, which wasn't enough, so he gave the 50¢ to his brother, for something his brother wanted.

Leonard's first job was a paper route. He picked up his papers at the general store in Bostonia, folded them there, and then delivered them before going to school. When he was thirteen years old, he worked for the Associated Service Station in El Cajon. He was always interested in cars.

To illustrate how dedicated he was to his work, during the time when he worked at the gas station, he and his two brothers all slept in the same bedroom. Once, when the alarm went off, Leonard rose out of his sleep and answered "Associated Service"--apparently he had been dreaming he was on the job at the station and answering the telephone. He was well liked and successful at the gas station because he was always very neat, courteous, conscientious and friendly. Those characteristics continued throughout his professional life.

Romance entered Leonard's life at a bus stop, where he saw and admired Mildred but was too shy to start a conversation. They were both in their early teens. Later, as they both attended Grossmont High School, fate moved them together at a football game and Leonard got up his nerve to start a relationship which has lasted for 47 years and produced a fine family with four daughters, Sue, Diane, Sandi and Teri--and already five grandchildren.

Mildred and Leonard were both quite young to be getting married nearly 43 years ago, in June 1938, but they had already been going together for four years. The record proves that they had thought it over carefully and knew what they were doing. Their marriage has been a good one, and they can be proud of their family and their lives.

The Hansen family first met the Stone family in 1960 when we became their neighbors in the Shadow Hills area. With a high degree of commonality in neighborhood, school and family interests, our families soon became close friends and have remained very close ever since. Leonard was a dedicated family man and a conscientious provider. He loved to talk about his family, his business, his home, and the investments in which he was interested. With his own house full of women, he seemed to enjoy his occasional opportunities for what he considered "man talk" with his close friends in the neighborhood.

At the urging of Mildred and my wife, Iris, many years ago, Leonard and I joined them in taking a few bridge lessons and then got together occasionally to practice. It was great fun, but I don't believe Leonard's heart was ever really in it. Once, after an improper and unsupported four-spade bid, Leonard explained--"What I meant was that I had four spades!" Anyway, he never took that game, or himself, too seriously and always displayed a ready sense of humor.

There was a very compatible and congenial group of Shadow Hills neighbors during the 1960's who enjoyed each other's company at many memorable dinners and parties. Most have remained close friends over the years, and several are here at this memorial service. Leonard and Mildred were frequently host and hostess and always most hospitable and gracious. Leonard seemed to enjoy watching others have fun even more than he enjoyed having fun himself. He always spoke well of everyone, and he never wanted to hurt anyone by word or deed. He lived by the Golden Rule.

Leonard liked nature and the outdoors. When he was young, his family went camping at De Hesa. Later, he took his own family camping. He liked fishing and did some hunting. He enjoyed visiting our cabin at Lake Cuyamaca. He and Mildred bought a site on the lake at the Palo Verde Ranch in Alpine because Mildred liked the countryside and the huge rocks on the property, but I guess Leonard never figured out how to build a rock house!

Leonard always dressed neatly and fashionably. He tended to be a perfectionist at home, as well as in his business. This was projected in his teaching his daughters to be proper ladies and more recently manifested itself in his attention to training his grandchildren to hold and use their forks and spoons properly when eating and their pens or pencils correctly for writing or drawing. Perhaps they will always remember that he wanted them to know what is right and do what is right.

Leonard always wanted the very best he could possibly provide for his family and was willing to take risks and deny his own personal needs in order to make the lives of his family as comfortable and secure as possible. I have known him to carry a heavy load of business and personal worries bottled up within himself because he didn't want Mildred or his children to be exposed to any worries or insecurity. Leonard was a model of dedication to the responsibilities of making his loved ones happy and shielding them from exposure to problems which he could bear alone.

Leonard was very good at his business. With Dubois Chemicals, and later as they were acquired by W. R. Grace, for 27 years until his final illness, his performance was a credit to his company and a valuable service to his customers in the San Diego area. His record speaks for itself in the bonus vacation trips which were awarded to him and Mildred for his outstanding performance to company goals and his personal objectives. I know that Mildred will continue to derive happiness from the memories of their well-deserved trips to such exotic places as Puerto Rico, in special recognition of Leonard's business accomplishments.

During the year that Iris and I were away in Washington, D.C., we came to visit in San Diego whenever we could and always spent time with the Stone family. During one of these visits, we found Leonard needing to go into a hospital for surgery, but not doing it because he was too worried about the impact on the welfare of his family from his being off his job for awhile. Fortunately, we were able to help Mildred convince him to do what needed to be done for himself. He recovered quickly and thoroughly. I believe that incident helped him to realize that he wasn't always the "iron man" he wanted to be and that he needed to learn to share more in adversity, communicate more completely and accept the assistance of his family to help see him through difficult times. These important lessons must have been most valuable to him, and to them, as he entered into the period of his final adversity.

Leonard faced what he knew would be his final earthly destiny with characteristic dignity and discipline, attending to all the planning and arrangements which he could to ease and mark the way for his family. We all know that God will reward Leonard Stone and bless his family with the comfort and happiness he has always wanted for them.

We pray for this.

This morning, February 10, 1981, Leonard Stone died of cancer. This story had been in preparation for some time before Len went on medical leave. At first, we thought about pulling it, and substituting the more standard obituary. Then we asked ourselves "Why? Wouldn't it be a far more fitting tribute to this gentle, successful man to print his words the way he told them to us? And wouldn't it be far more beneficial to the people reading it than bare facts about his birth, when he joined DuBois, and what area he covered? We think Len Stone would have liked it better this way."

DuBois Communications

We salute top producer Leonard Stone, San Diego, California sales representative, who talks about his "Stone Age" salesmanship methods . . . methods that made him a President's Council member the last four years.

Is there one special quality a DuBois sales representative must have above all else if he or she is to succeed in our direct selling business?

Leonard Stone, senior institutional representative, who has sold DuBois products and systems for 27 years, will simply answer, "Tenacity (being tough, persistent, and courageous) is the foremost qualification you need to be successful. Also it's your positive attitude or state of mind that sells the prospect. Says Stone, "I call it stone age salesmanship because it's been around since the beginning—of the DuBois Company, that is."

Len continues his success story:

"I came to DuBois in 1953 from a food service sales job at Schilling Spice Company (now McCormick). One of my contacts had referred me to a DuBois West Coast Manager named Burt Russell. At that time, there were numerous expanding territories with DuBois. In fact, DuBois was extremely sparse in field representation (with only 250 or more sales reps across the country), and we had a pretty wide geographic area to cover in Southern California.

This included Imperial County and the growing San Diego area, plus Mexicali and Tijuanna, Mexico.

"Our founder, T.V. DuBois, and Manager Bert Russell insisted that I get to know and earn the respect of my prospects. That's how to do it!

"I've got to say that even today as we talk," he told the Times reporter, "there is not one speck of difference for a young man or woman just coming into this sales organization than to appreciate the thought 'Build patiently!' Oh, there may be a few overnight success stories, but most of those are written up in fairy tale books. You have to go into our business with the resolution that on every call you will sell the prospect; Uppermost in your mind is the thought 'Today is the day!', then by sheer tenacity and stick-to-itiveness, you will overcome most obstacles. The prospect/customer may not buy every time, but one day you will sell them using tenacity as your byword.

"One fact that I learned early in my career came from one of my account buyers,and it's still paramount in my sales approach. He told me, 'A prospective buyer, no matter in what industry or class of trade, can't buy from everyone, so they buy from the least offensive.'

Len Stone defines 'least offensive' as the sales representative who is most helpful to his clients in solving their problems in an aggressively confident but non-abrasive manner. Len Stone personifies this belief.

Len continues, "This buyer's motto was 'The guy who treats me as if he wants to be on my team and helps me in my business, gets my business.

"During my days as a manager, the kind of sales person we sought was one who understood that they were building 'a practice'—much in the same fashion as a doctor—with concern for the client, and with dignity. To do this, you had to work hard. Patience, hardwork and tenacity are so important in this business." stressed Len Stone.

"Because the DuBois Repersentative should expect to resell this buyer a thousand times over, the time will come when this buyer is satisfied with what you do for him. He or she will have reached a comfort level with you, and you will be hard to dislodge by competition. It's sort of the same feeling you have about a favorite barber or hairdresser. You have reached that point where you no longer have to explain what you want done with your hair, knowing they are well aware of what you wish done and confident that you will be satisfied. I think my customers keep coming back to me because they are satisfied with the results of my products and service.

You have reached that point where you no longer have to explain what you want done with your hair, knowing they are well aware of what you wish done and confident that you will be satisfied. I think my customers keep coming back to me because they are satisfied with the results of my products and services.

"Today my customers comprise a broad range of institutional kitchen, housekeeping, laundry and general maintenance products. Having established myself with key business, I find that the volume and tonnage of multi-products gives me a return on my past effort. I grew as my accounts did. For instance:

"My largest account, Atlas Hotels, was first sold by me in 1953. At that time they had 48 rooms, and a lot of acreage for expansion in future years. They have nine hotels, now, with over 5,000 rooms in all.

"Their first order in 1953 was for three cases of KLORO-KOL. I lived with the account while servicing the product, making sure that everyone saw the results, plus my sincere effort to help them get the most out of that product. With all operations, their 1980 purchases from us should go to $100,000.

"Another account—Evans Hotels—originally sold by me in 1955, now has two hotels, and a good-sized laundry in which they handle all their own laundry requirements plus some outside accounts. San Diego University and Bishop School are two of their accounts, plus a number of others. This account buys approximately $40,000 annually in laundry products alone.

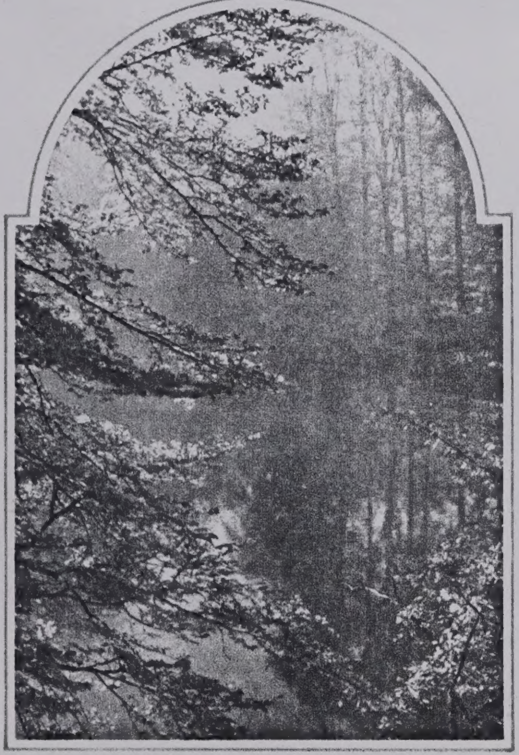
"Another of my accounts—now running in the $40,000 annual sales class—let me start with only their kitchen products for their six (various 'old age') operations. I got their promise of the laundry business if we proved out in the kitchen and housekeeping areas. Using the methods—servicing the products, teaching the personnel how to use, and 'living' with the account until all was running smoothly—we got the laundry in the third month. We have been selling twelve products to this account for the past two years.

"The point I'm trying to illustrate with these prime accounts is to show that honesty, and handling the account as if each one were your only employer, really does pay in the long run.

"Over the years my enthusiasm for selling DuBois products and systems, and having a man-to-man/woman rapport with each of my accounts, has helped make my job not only profitable but extremely enjoyable.

"I'm also certain that the future earnings of a new DuBois representative are just as good today as yesterday," Len Stone argues. "Of course, I'm also very proud to have been one of the old-timers hired by T.V. DuBois. Rarely does a day pass that one of his astute business teachings, or candid remarks doesn't cross my mind. But most of all, I consider myself fortunate to have been associated with DuBois all these years," concluded Leonard Stone.

Mr. Stone may refer to his sales technique as 'stone age,' but this Top Producer doesn't have to take a backseat to any DuBois representative, past or present.



The Twenty-Third Psalm

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:
He leadeth me beside the still waters.
He restoreth my soul: He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake.
Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil:
for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.
Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies:
thou anointest my head with oil;
my cup runneth over.
Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life:
and I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever.

From All of Us
To All of You

Dec. 85

Dear Willie & Ben

Hope this is your merriest Christmas ever!

Love and best wishes
Aunt Sis

I'm sorry I have not sent you the information you have asked for, but Sandi and I will get busy and get it to you real soon. I think its so important to know our heritage.

Enjoy your letters so much. Give my love to the family and have a lovely Christmas.

April 9, 1987-(Thursday)

Dear Maryalice,

So good to hear from you, And hear about all the good information you and Willie have uncovered. I am so thrilled to hear about the Gibbs history. You two gals have really been busy!

My youngest daughter, Sissy or Terresa, tried so hard to get info on the Gibbs side.

Aunt Fern gave me some papers on work she and her daughter did on both sides. I plan to pick them up and have copies made, and if it looks like there is any thing extra there, I will let you know.

My daughter Sandra (or Sandi) is going to Grossmont College and I am getting her three children off to school. She is home in time to pick them up, so has time to spend when they are home from school. She's working on a teaching degree. keeps her quite busy.

It is so nice that you and Willie live so close to each other. There is just nothing to compare to a sister, is there? I really love my Sisters. I don't seem to be able to see them as much as I would like, but we do talk on the phone a lot.

My grand children are growing up so fast. Kevin, the youngest, will be eight the 20th. He and his brother are both going to be big like their father. Kirsten will be ten in May. She is so tiny and fragile looking, but is quite different. She takes, Jazz, Ballet, tap dancing and really likes all of them. They are all very interesting children. (Adam is 11.

I thought the story of Nichola Gibbs was so interesting. I would love to see that cabin one day.

I wish my mom could have seen it. She was such a devoted mama. Miss her a lot.

Well, Maryalice, tell Willie hi for me, and give the family my best. Would love to see you both one day, and hear all about your trip in person.

I have put the info on a seperate page. Sorry Mildred Rangloe didn't have more. She was twelve when she went to live with her mother, so didn't really have that much. She loved Grandpa Gettles (also Grandma) He was a father figure to her. She said he was so handsome. Still had his own teeth, didn't wear glasses. From what I understand, he was 104 years old when he died.

Must close and get this in the mail - Love -
Aunt Sis

James C and Sarah L. Heyon in last years of their lives lived in or near - Loco Oklahoma - Mildred Ranglos said she does not have any information at all on the Gibbs family. She said Grandpa Gibbs was living with (in Paris, Okla)
Aunt Annie Diavers when he died.
He also lived with his son,
Benjamin in Pauls Valley Okla.
She said Mills Creek Oklahoma is familiar to her. Uncel Benjamin Gibbs lived later in life in Pomona, Calif.

Mildred Ranglos - Daughter of Ollie Gibbs - Born in 1909 - in Tishimingo, Okla. - no records - no birth certificate. - She lived the first twelve years with Grandma & Grandpa Gibbs.
Their children were all married,
so she traveled in covered wagon with them. We (or she) thinks he died in 1921 - (over)

She said there was a large bible with records. She thougt her mother had it at one time and didn't know if it was destroyed at her death. (Ollie) She thought also that Uncle Lew might have had it.

Mary Mildred Ringler is very sensitive about her mother and did not want to talk about that part of her life. She was very intrested in the family tree & would love a copy. I will pay you whatever you need for mine & hers also.

Dear Ones,
Received your beautiful card and welcome note.

I want to thank you and Mary for all the thoughtful card, letters & pictures & records that you have sent. I think this is so special.

Are you having a real winter back there. It is cold here at night, but nice during the day.

My new job keeps me away from home from Mon. at 9:00 until Sat. at 9:00. I'm here now, helping a little handicapped lady. It's hard work, but it keeps me over

Dec. '88

Dear Willie & Ben,

Happy Holidays
and best wishes for happiness in the new year

Love,

Ever Close in Mine and in Heart

No further away than a picture, A smile, or remembered phrase,
Our loved ones live in memory---------- So close in so many ways.
For- how- often does a sunset Bring nostalgic thoughts to mind
Of moments, that our loved ones shared In days now left behind!
How often has a flower or a crystal autumn sky Brought golden Recollections Of happy days gone by! Yes, memory has a magic way Of keeping loved ones near——-Ever close in mind and heart
Are the ones we hold most dear.

Newlyweds Leave For Texas Home, Vows Said Here

Mr. and Mrs. Wade O. Cummins will leave this week for Laredo, Texas, where they will live while Mr. Cummins is stationed there with the U. S. Air Force. They were married June 8 at an 11 a.m. nuptial mass at Holy Trinity Catholic Church.

The bride is the former Miss Carolyn Sue Stone, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Stone, 652 South Second St. Mr. and Mrs. George Behrens of Suncrest are the parents of the bridegroom.

For "something old" at her wedding the bride wore a 100 year old heirloom pin belonging to her maternal grandmother, Mrs. Mary L. Ham of El Cajon. The bride's dress was ballerina length Chantilly lace and net over satin. She carried white elf roses and wore an illusion net veil caught to a band.

Miss Judy Hunn, maid of honor, wore white with pink sash and hat and carried pink carnations. Jan Meyer, niece, and Willard Kent, nephew of the bride, were flower girl and ring bearer for the double ring ceremony.

David Brown served as best man with Jerry Wallace and Carl Cummins, brother of the bridegroom as ushers.

A reception was held at the home of the bride's aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Kent, 1067 Merritt Dr. The bride is a junior at El Cajon Valley High while Mr. Cummins graduated from Helix High School.

Dear Sue and Wade,

Hope your all well, and please do not faint when you realize who is writing you a letter. I am your long lost cousin, Willielee (Ham) Brown, who has spent all her married life traveling from here to there, and back again. At least it seems that way to me. I loved my childhood near my family. By now, and I am sure you have heard, Maryalice and I have been working for the last two or three years on our family tree. We have come to the time we need your help, please.

We have been working hard to get all the Gibbs/Hixon side of the family into the computer, so we can get Grandma's side of the family sent out to everyone who has helped us with our research. As you can see we have tried to get as much information as possible to make the family tree more interesting to you, our readers, on our ancestors and descendants, as possible. We maybe getting ahead of ourselves, but want to thank you for help with the enclosed material in this envelope. We hope to be finished in the next two months. It will go well if everyone will help with their immediate family. Before I forget, if there is anything you do not wish to appear on your family sheet that is already there, please let us know, and we will remove it. We are not putting height on the children that are still growing. When your family members get married, have children, graduate from school, win awards, etc., change jobs, or pass away we would appreciate a copy of certicates, newspaper articles or notes giving us all the information. We will send you back a corrected copy of the family sheet, with our many thanks for your kindness.

I spent the day at Maryalice's yesterday, and we worked on the Hodges family, so I could get it into the computer today and tomorrow. Mary fixed our lunch, and I ate so much I couldn't eat my dinner last night. We always have so much fun when we get together, even though we are working most of the time. We have done a lot of traveling in the past doing genealogy research. We hope to do that again someday.

On Saturday Diane came down from the Aurora to visit with us. She stopped by here first, and then we went on to Maryalices for a little while, and then out to lunch at La Peep. After lunch we went back to Maryalice's to visit some more until Diane needed to start back home. The weather was looking very threatening, and she needed to get over the pass before it got to cold, snowy or icy. She made it home ok, except it was a little menacing over Monument Pass. We had a enormous snow storm that night. Was so good to see Diane/Marilyn again. It is so long between visits I'm sorry to say. It is about an hour and a half drive to my house from Diane's, and another half hour to Maryalice's. That isn't really that far, but to find a day we are all free seems hard to do. Mary and I both enjoy the times we have been able to get together with Diane, because she is so much fun. It is almost like we have know her all our lifes.

I want to get this in the mail to you, so I'll stop writing. I hope you don't mind me writing and making this plea for your help.

Love,

UNCC was 5-21 last year, but new coach and former NBA player Jeff Mullins is considered a good bet to have an improved record this year.

With relief pitcher Dave Cummins (two hits, no runs in three innings of work) holding the Crusaders in check, the Norsemen started running wild. The Norsemen scored twice in the sixth, then turned two walks, two errors, a hit batsman and a single into the winning rally.

The final two runs were scored on an infield error. John Ace batted with the bases loaded and hit a bouncer toward the second baseman, who bobbled the ball and failed to make a play. Jeff Dirkes scored easily from third, while Perez kept going all the way from second.

"As soon as the ball got hit, I kept running," Perez said. "I figured I was going to go all the way home. We talked before the game about how we've had a lot of bugs. We figure there is time to pull ourselves together. I think

BASEBALL

Steen weaved his way through the Valhalla lineup with a good curveball that was made effective mostly through location. He enticed Valhalla into eight ground-ball outs and rarely fell behind hitters, walking only two. His lone mistake was a 1-1 changeup to pinch-hitter Dave Cummins in the fifth inning. The Norseman hitter deposited the pitch onto the track outside the left-field fence for a two-out, two-run home run, closing Mount Miguel's lead to 4-3 at the time.

That's when Valhalla's inexperienced infield played dodge ball for a while, making three errors for three unearned Matador runs in the sixth inning. The Norsemen made a threat in the bottom of the seventh inning with three straight singles but ran out of spunk after Rob Sharp's sacrifice fly for the final run.

Matador third baseman Jason Stewart was the hitting star with two well-hit singles and the game-winning RBI in the first inning. Donnie Young and Rick Ayala added two singles each.

Cummins followed up his home run with a line-drive single up the middle in the seventh inning. Scott Dennison and Brett Strickland had two hits each.

Vaqueros 5, Sundevils 2

Jim Tixier burned the Devils with a three-hit day, including a bases-loaded double to bring El Capitan from behind and a solo home run in the final inning. His fifth-inning double in a four-run rally may have gone for more than the two runs it scored had it not bounced over the fence.

Jerry Aldridge added a run-scoring single in the fourth inning after two Mount Carmel pitchers walked the first four batters of the inning.

Vaqueros pitchers Rob Arnold and Matt Smith combined to limit Mount Carmel to four hits and one earned run.

Highlanders 5, Dons 4

Helix came back from a 4-3 deficit with one run in the sixth inning and the game-winner in the seventh in a see-saw battle. University could not hold leads of 3-1 and 4-3.

Nick Moramarco led off the winning rally with a single, John Joralemon followed with another single and Ricky Pedran lined a single to left-center field on a hit-and-run for the game-winner.

Pitcher Rick Navarro struck [illegible] batters in two innings of relief work, gaining the win.

Patriots 4, Foothillers 1

Grossmont trailed 3-0 before making a showing in the fourth inning. Foothiller Gerry Furlong led off with a single, stole second base and reached third base on a passed ball. David Entriken's grounder to first base scored Furlong with the lone Grossmont run.

Dave Cummins

With relief pitcher Dave Cummins (two hits, no runs in three innings of work) holding the Crusaders in check, the Norsemen started running wild. The Norsemen scored twice in the sixth, then turned two walks, two errors, a hit batsman and a single into the winning rally.

The final two runs were scored on an infield error. John Ace batted with the bases loaded and hit a bouncer toward the second baseman, who bobbled the ball and failed to make a play. Jeff Dirkes scored easily from third, while Perez kept going all the way from second.

"As soon as the ball got hit, I kept running," Perez said. "I figured I was going to go all the way home. We talked before the game about how we've had a lot of bugs. We figure there is time to pull ourselves together. I think

Steen weaved his way through the Valhalla lineup with a good curveball that was made effective mostly through location. He enticed Valhalla into eight ground-ball outs and rarely fell behind hitters, walking only two. His lone mistake was a 1-1 changeup to pinch-hitter Dave Cummins in the fifth inning. The Norseman hitter deposited the pitch onto the track outside the left-field fence for a two-out, two-run home run, closing Mount Miguel's lead to 4-3 at the time.

That's when Valhalla's inexperienced infield played dodge ball for a while, making three errors for three unearned Matador runs in the sixth inning. The Norsemen made a threat in the bottom of the seventh inning with three straight singles but ran out of spunk after Rob Sharp's sacrifice fly for the final run.

Matador third baseman Jason Stewart was the hitting star with two well-hit singles and the game-winning RBI in the first inning. Donnie Young and Rick Ayala added two singles each.

Cummins followed up his home run with a line drive single up the middle in the seventh inning. Scott Dennison and Brett Strickland had two hits each.

Vaqueros 5, Sundevils 2

Jim Tixier burned the Devils with a three-hit day, including a bases-loaded double to bring El Capitan from behind and a solo home run in the final inning. His fifth-inning double in a four-run rally may have gone for more than the two runs it scored had it not bounced over the fence.

Jerry Aldridge added a run-scoring single in the fourth inning after two Mount Carmel pitchers walked the first four batters of the inning.

Vaqueros pitchers Rob Arnold and Matt Smith combined to limit Mount Carmel to four hits and one earned run.

Highlanders 5, Dons 4

Helix came back from a 4-3 deficit with one run in the sixth inning and the game-winner in the seventh in a see-saw battle. University could not hold leads of 3-1 and 4-3.

Nick Moramarco led off the winning rally with a single, John Joralemon followed with another single and Ricky Pedran lined a single to left-center field on a hit-and-run for the game-winner.

Pitcher Rick Navarro struck out four batters in two innings of relief work, gaining the win.

Patriots 4, Foothillers 1

Grossmont trailed 3-0 before making a showing in the fourth inning. Foothiller Gerry Furlong led off with a single, stole second base and reached third base on a passed ball. David Entriken's grounder to first base scored Furlong with the lone Grossmont run.
